IT'S THE BIGG BOSS'S B'DAY

by Preety Mehta

By the time he hit fifty-three, he had already learnt the hardest lessons. He found out that only a few things are important, and also learnt to take life seriously but never himself. No points for guessing the name of the person.

It's Mr. Jay Mehta's birthday on 6th May, which will also be celebrated as Akshay Tritiya. Akshay Tritiya is a Sanskrit word which means one that never diminishes. Isn't it so apt for our head honcho? On the occasion of the Bigg Boss's birthday we decided to talk about Boss-Employee relationship at Jaypee and also reveal a few secrets about him.

Mr. Chairman, started the Jaypee Group over 28 years now and since then there has been ebb and flow in the company. Mr. Jay Mehta always believed in positive thinking and honesty. It was his dedication, hard work and of course, luck that built a strong foundation for Jaypee and took it to the peak of where it is now.

"It's been 20 years I have been working with him and not even a single moment in my life I have ever felt that he is not my elder brother. My relationship with him is beyond any description. With the entire workforce he has to be a boss and it is important to be the one in order to maintain discipline in the office" says Mr. Dipankar. "His nature differs from person to person. It's his superiority that makes him an industrialist and a man of his own words." Continues Mr. Dipankar.

Mr. Aditya Mehta and Mr. Kumar Mehta collectively say, "Dad and our relationship is very different in office as compared to that at home. Here, in the office he is more like a mentor and a boss. He will reprimand us on our carelessness and at the same time he would congratulate us at our best. Whereas at home he is so much like how a father should be. We play cards together, go out for dinners, and laugh till our stomach starts hurting, with his super sense of humor."

On your birthday, Bigg Boss, you have positively affected our life in various ways, even in ways that you have never thought of yourself. As you turn a year older with another year of experience, we wish you all the good things in life. May you live long in good health and wealth.

Congrats!
