Christmas in Poland

Poland's Christmas Eve: Wigilia

In Poland, the traditional Christmas feast occurs on Christmas Eve, or Wigilia, a day that holds equal importance with Christmas Day. Before the table is set, straw or hay is placed under a white tablecloth. An extra place is set for any unexpected visitor, as a reminder that the Holy family was turned away from inns in Bethlehem and that those seeking shelter are welcome on this special night. The traditional Polish Christmas meal consists of 12 dishes, one for each of the 12 apostles. These dishes are usually meatless, though this restriction does not exclude the preparation of fish. Typically, people watch for the first star to appear in the night sky before sitting down to eat. The breaking of symbolic wafers precedes the meal and everyone shares pieces of the broken wafers.

The Christmas Tree

It is on this day that the Christmas tree is decorated. The Polish Christmas tree can be decorated with shapes cut from gingerbread, colored wafers, cookies, fruit, candy, straw ornaments, decorations made from eggshells, or commercially produced ornaments.

Traditional Polish Christmas Beliefs and Superstitions

Certain beliefs and superstitions surround Christmastime in Poland, though these beliefs are often only observed for fun today. Animals are said to be able to speak on Christmas Eve. The straw placed under the table cloth can be used for fortune telling. Old grudges are supposed to be forgiven during Christmas time in Poland. The first person to visit the house will predict future events – a man brings fortune, a woman, misfortune.

Merry Christmas !!!

Proud to be with Jaypee

By Rimi Ghosh (HR)

Dear Colleagues,

It is near about a month since I became a part of our JAYPEE family. By now some of you may have come to know my name, some others may have spoken to me and few met me, but by and large I am yet to know all of you. Or more precisely, I wish to know each one of you. So I take this opportunity to communicate with you through our Newsletter.

I was very impressed and happy to know that most of you have a long association with JAYPEE which is very encouraging for anyone who has joined in HR. This means the company has a committed asset in terms of its Human Resource.

As a new member of this family may I request each one of you, to share with me your unique views on "PROUD TO BE WITH JAYPEE".

So all of you who love the company so dearly please pick up your pen and write one or two lines to me in Bengali, Hindi or English and send to our corporate office, HR Department.

(This is NOT about testing your writing skills but to guide your HR to serve you better!!)

I sign off here at a positive note with a quote from Gandhiji wishing that all of us keep a Positive Mindset ALWAYS.

Keep your thoughts positive,
because your thoughts become your words.
Keep your words positive,
because your words become your behaviors.
Keep your behaviors positive,
because your behaviors become your habits.
Keep your habits positive,
because your habits become your values.
Keep your values positive,
because your values become your destiny.
